Data processing scope, purpose, and legal basis

In the course of InnoTrans 2022, the following photographs and/or video recordings will be taken for the purpose of reporting on the following events:

- General photographs/video recordings of the KB SfS GmbH booth at InnoTrans trade fair
- General photographs/video recordings of visitors to KB SfS GmbH booth at InnoTrans
- Photographs/video recordings of conversations with prospects, customers, and trade visitors
- Photographs for use in presenting Knorr-Bremse Systeme für Schienenfahrzeuge GmbH in print products, on the company's intranet and Internet sites, on social networks, at promotional exhibitions, trade fairs and other events, and on data carriers and other media

The legal basis for processing the data is our legitimate interest – in this case, in the public reporting of our activities – pursuant to Art. 6 para. 1(f) GDPR.

Data recipients

The photographs/video recordings are stored on data carriers intended for distributing the data, and are disclosed for the following purposes:

- In print products published by Knorr-Bremse Systeme für Schienenfahrzeuge GmbH and affiliated companies in the Knorr-Bremse Group
- On the corporate intranet, Internet websites, and social networks
- To present and disseminate details of promotional exhibitions/trade fairs/other events
- To document the company's trade fair presence
- To improve the corporate image of Knorr-Bremse Systeme für Schienenfahrzeuge
- For public relations purposes

We should point out that photographs/video recordings published on the Internet are globally accessible. Consequently, it is impossible to rule out the further use of this data by third parties.

Storage period

We delete your personal data after a period of five (5) years unless statutory retention rules require that we store it for longer periods. It is not possible to erase data appearing in print products that have already been published.

Your rights

You have the right to request that we confirm whether or not we are processing personal data concerning you; if this is the case, you have the right to be informed about this personal data and to the information described in detail in Art. 15 GDPR.

You have the right to request that we immediately rectify any inaccurate personal data concerning you and, if necessary, that we complete any incomplete personal data.

You have the right to request that we immediately erase any personal data concerning you if one of the grounds described in detail in Art. 17 GDPR applies, so for example if the data is no longer required for the specified purposes (right to erasure).

If one of the provisions listed in Art. 18 GDPR applies, so for example if you contest the processing of your personal data, you have the right to request that we restrict the processing of your data for the duration of our verification procedure.

You have the right to object to the processing of personal data concerning you at any time, on grounds relating to your particular situation. At such time we will no longer process your personal data unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms, or unless the processing is required for purposes of establishing, exercising or defending a legal claim or claims.

Please note that where your personal data has been published in printed matter, it is only possible to object to the processing of this data up to the time at which it goes to print.

If you wish to exercise your rights or have any questions about Knorr-Bremse's data protection policy, please contact Knorr-Bremse's data protection organization at privacy@knorr-bremse.com.

We take your inquiries and concerns very seriously and make every effort to resolve them. In addition, however, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a competent data protection authority at any time.
